Feb. 10, 2022 7:30 – 8:00 p.m. Zoom

Present: Amy Couture from WCAT; Maria Muti, Sherri Oken, Emma Partyka from WHRC

Absent: Eileen Rooney

I. Confirmed Panelists

- Stephanie South (Germany)
- Teresa Aravena-Gonzalez (Chile)
- Saratin Rizzuto (Dominican Republic)
- Cindy Chou Rodrigue (China)
- Summer (Jordan)
- Emma has been speaking with Anya Jacob from Black Student Union about a potential panelist with African background

Moderator: Mehreen Butt (Pakistan)

II. Zoom Logistics

The Library is willing to provide the Zoom link and handle the registration for us, as well as help to promote the event.

III. Format

- Zoom webinar
- Only panel is visible and can speak.
- Individual speakers will be spotlighted.
- Attendees can post questions in the chat box for the moderator to review.
- WCAT is able to record so that people can view on demand if they could not attend on March 8th.
- At the beginning, each panelist will introduce herself (ex. where her family originates, when they came to the US and under what circumstances).
- We will supply panelists with all the questions in advance so that they can think about their responses.

IV. Other Logistics

- Do we need have a technical dry run? Check if panelists would like this.
- We could convene the panel and camera person at 6:00 to ensure all is working properly.
- At 7:00, public can join the event and put their questions in the chat.
- If we are able to present a live event, WCAT would need 10 days advance notice.
- The IWD Committee will meet again next week to develop the questions.
