November 2019 Highlights

On November 1st we received a report from Walgreens that a male party had removed the cash drawer from a front register and ran out the front door. The male party was described as a white male wearing a black sweatshirt and gray sweat pants. Responding units conducted a thorough search of the area and were unable to locate the suspect. Walgreens was able to provide video footage and still images were added to our roll call system. Several days later Officer Matt Warren was on patrol when he observed a male party in the area of Farmland that had a similar appearance to the suspect. When he circled back the party had left the area, however, he was able to confirm his identity as a local resident. The following day Officer Warren and Detective Ken Silva responded to the last known residence for this individual. A family member answered and they were allowed in. During this time, Detective Silva observed evidence of the crime. These items have been secured for processing. The male party has not returned, however, there are strong leads in this case that we believe will result in prosecution.

On November 4th Officer Michael Wilson was traveling east on Water Street during the early morning hours when he observed a vehicle traveling in the opposite direction without its headlights illuminated. He immediately turned around and attempted to conduct a stop. The vehicle made a sharp right turn onto Preston Street and continued at a high rate of speed. The operator turned into a driveway while keeping all lights off. He then spoke to the female operator who had no connection to this residence. After further investigation, the female out of Lynn was charged with Operating with a Suspended License, Failure to Stop for Police, and Possession of an Open Container of Alcohol in a Motor Vehicle.

On November 6th Officer John Whaley was on patrol on Audubon Road when his attention was drawn to a Nissan Altima that had its front bumper dragging along the roadway and the windows appeared to have an illegal tint. He proceeded to conduct a stop on the ramp at Exit #42. As he spoke with the occupants was able to detect a strong odor of marijuana emanating from the vehicle. He then observed multiple items of clothing, all of which still had price tags, many were still on hangers, and several still had security tags. After further investigation, it was determined that these individuals had just left Market Street. Officer Whaley then requested Lynnfield Police meet him at several store locations. They were able to match video that clearly showed a male and female engaging in retail theft. The two are facing multiple criminal charges with a total estimated merchandise value of over $3,600.

On November 27th officers were dispatched to Butternut Road for a report of a disturbance where a male had armed himself with a knife and was threatening suicide. Upon arrival, they were met by a family member and were informed that the involved party had just left on foot. Officer set up a perimeter and immediately began a search. With the assistance of a State Police K-9 unit, they were able to locate the individual hiding in the woods behind some brush. Fortunately, the individual was no longer armed with a knife and was cooperative. He was taken to the hospital for further evaluation and assistance.

On November 22nd Lieutenant Joe Anderson and Officer Amy Rando assisted with another "Wakefield 101" event. It was a nice opportunity to engage with a few of our new residents and hand out some literature and souvenirs.

We once again participated in the "No Shave November" to help raise money for Cops for Kids with Cancer. We appreciate everyone's support and donations for this very worthy cause.

Respectfully Yours,
