WAKEFIELD POLICE DEPARTMENT OFFICE OF THE CHIEF

One Union Street, Wakefield, Massachusetts, 01880

September 2020 Highlights

On September 7th, Officers were dispatched to a residence for an adult male having a mental health episode that involved hallucinations. The subject's children informed Officers that he suffers from bipolar disorder, paranoia, and depression. This individual has a long history of mental illness which also includes violent outbursts. Officers Rob Haladay and Jason Skillings, who are well trained in crisis intervention, responded. When Officers arrived, they found the subject locked in a third floor bedroom and in an extremely agitated state, refusing to open the door for the Officers. The Officers engaged this individual in dialogue through the closed door and spent a significant amount of time de-escalating the subject. After an extended period of volatile behavior, they were able to talk the male out of the third floor room and out to an ambulance where he was taken to the hospital for an evaluation. This was a very difficult situation that was handled extremely well and resulted in a peaceful outcome with no use of force by the Officers.

On September 8th, Officers responded to the Greenwood Plaza for a report of a theft from a motor vehicle. Upon arrival, they spoke with a female party who advised that she had gone into the "T-Stop" store for approximately five minutes and left her vehicle unlocked. When she returned, she noticed that her pocketbook was missing from the front passenger seat. The pocketbook contained several identification cards, medical prescriptions, checkbooks, and a large amount of cash. Detectives were able to obtain video footage that showed a male and female in the area of the vehicle with the male subject entering the vehicle and exiting with the pocketbook. The male subject was identified, but was unable to be located. The suspect is being summoned to court and charged with Larceny over $1200 and Breaking and Entering into a Motor Vehicle.

The Wakefield Police Department has been dealing extensively with a 46-year-old male from Salem Street that has significant alcohol issues and depression. His mood and behavior are erratic and are often on public display in various areas around town. There have been dozens of calls related to this individual over the past several months, sometimes multiple times each day that occasionally result in criminal charges. In addition to our patrol officers, our team of Family Services Officer Amy Rando, Clinician Jennifer Wazckowski, and Recovery Coach Tracy Ascolillo have worked countless hours with this individual. This has involved assistance with self-care, filing paperwork, finding beds at treatment facilities on multiple occasions during all hours of the day, and so forth. Unfortunately, this party has failed to follow through with many of the opportunities that have been opened up by this group. On September 28th, Jennifer was able to find a placement at another temporary treatment facility in Worcester and was also able to arrange for transportation. The male agreed to allow Jennifer and Tracy to assist with discharge planning to a longer-term facility. This is just one small example of the daily efforts of this team that is working with a large and very challenging population both in terms of mental health and substance use. Statistical outcomes are not always a fair representation of their work, as steps forward can often be followed by a fall backward. However, every small victory brings hope for a positive outcome

On September 14th, School Resource Officer Mike Pietrantonio received a report from the Northeast Regional Vocational School of a threat that was made along with other vulgar language during a remote zoom class. No students were at the school as they were all remote learning at the time. With the assistance of Detective Ken Silva, it was determined that someone had logged in to the zoom as another student. They were further able to determine through an IP address that the log-in came from an address in Chelsea, MA. They responded to this address and spoke with a juvenile male who is a student at Northeast. The subject admitted to the inappropriate activity and the school is dealing with the student's discipline per their policies. This investigation was a result of the new world of on-line learning and required an extensive amount of time and resources. Unfortunately, this is something that may continue for the foreseeable future.

During the early morning hours of September 22nd, we were dispatched to the parking garage at 14 Audubon Road for a report of a female that had suffered a gunshot wound. Sergeant Lenners, Officer DeMasi, and Officer Wilson were the first on scene and located the victim. This was a chaotic scene as Officers rendered first aid to the victim and had to identify others that were present during the incident. The female victim was transported to the hospital with serious injuries. The responding officers performed at a high level under extremely stressful circumstances. This remains a very active investigation by our detective division with two juveniles currently facing firearms charges.

Respectfully,
